

Allspring Appoints Max Watson as Consultant Relations Director for the International Client Group

LONDON, 21 January 2026—Allspring Global Investments™, a global asset management company with US$628 billion* in assets under management and advisement, is pleased to announce the appointment of Max Watson as consultant relations director for its international business. Max will report to Joseph Dore, head of International Consultant Relations, and will strengthen Allspring's global and UK consultant relationships by adding expertise to this critical area.

Max brings extensive experience, with over 15 years working primarily with global consultants as well as institutional and wealth investors. In his new role, Max will focus on advancing strategic engagement across the global and UK consultant community.

Before joining Allspring, Max served at Capital Group, where he managed consultant relationships in the UK. His career also included client relationship roles at Neuberger Berman and Alcentra.

This appointment underscores Allspring's commitment to deepening relationships with consultants who are increasingly influential beyond traditional retirement solutions, expanding into areas such as insurance and wealth management.

Commenting on the appointment, Joseph Dore said:

"I am delighted to welcome Max to Allspring as we take our global and UK consultant efforts to the next level. Over the last few years, Allspring has made significant progress within the global consultant community across both fixed income and equity. With Max on board, we aim to further strengthen our go-to-market approach, particularly in insurance and wealth, alongside our established retirement focus. Our Global Consultant team aspires to be the most responsive and globally connected in the market, and Max's expertise will be instrumental in helping us continue delivering on this ambitious goal".

Max Watson added:

"I'm delighted to be joining Allspring at an exciting time for the company. Allspring combines client focus with deep, global investment expertise. I am joining one of the most experienced consultant relations teams with a great reputation. I look forward to helping continue to build strong partnerships with investment consultants".

The announcement follows the recent news of Allspring appointing Andrew Epsom as head of Insurance for the International Client Group to lead and expand Allspring's international (ex US) insurance efforts.
