What were the Fund costs for the past year?

The table explains the costs you would have paid within the reporting period based on a hypothetical $10,000 investment.

CLASS NAME	COSTS OF A $10,000 INVESTMENT	COSTS PAID AS A % OF A $10,000 INVESTMENT
Class A	$72	0.70% ¹

¹ Amounts reflect net expenses allocated from the affiliated Master Portfolios in which the Fund invests.

The manager has contractually committed to waive fees and/or reimburse certain expenses to the extent necessary to cap the Fund's total annual fund operating expense ratio at a specific amount. Without this cap, the costs shown above may have been higher. Please see the prospectus for the amount and the expiration date of the cap. Prior to or after the commitment expiration date, the cap may be increased or the commitment to maintain the cap may be terminated only with the approval of the Board of Trustees.

How did the Fund perform last year and what affected its performance?

Economic and market commentary

Over the past year, U.S. investors balanced opportunity and risk amid shifting central bank policies, postelection trade uncertainties, and bond market volatility. Inflation concerns persisted, but the Federal Reserve held rates steady, supporting economic growth. Global markets faced economic challenges. Mid-2024 rate cuts boosted equities. Postelection political uncertainty weighed on market sentiment. Entering 2025, inflation moderated, but trade policy shifts kept markets volatile.

Significant portfolio changes

We reduced our U.S. exposure significantly across asset classes, and we shifted risk toward fixed income away from equities. We have increased exposure to sovereign bonds over corporates. We added to the Income Plus, Short-Term High Yield, and Emerging Markets Equity strategies.

Top contributors

Exposure to fixed income contributed—in particular, global government and inflation-linked bonds and the Income Plus Fund. Exposures to the Tactical Asset Allocation and Downside Risk Hedging strategies were positive.

Main detractors

Alternatives—particularly the Cross-Asset Trend strategy—detracted.
